

Youth Leader Volunteer Application

(2019 Summer Critter Camp)

The Guelph Humane Society is running its Summer Critter Camp and needs Youth Leader volunteers! Critter Camp allows campers from grades 1-8 to learn about the Humane Society, proper animal care, and experience hands-on interaction. Youth Leaders will help camp staff run games, crafts, and activities during this program. Hours can be put towards community service and resume building. The camp will be located at the Guelph Humane Society and Youth Leaders are required to arrange their own transportation.

Requirements

- Entering grade 9 or above
- Experience working with children and/or animals
- Comfortable handling various animals
- Positive, enthusiastic, hard-working, and responsible attitude
- Excellent teamwork skills
- Must be able to commit to two weeks of camp at minimum. Schedules will be organized following interviews.

Why volunteer?

- Build valuable leadership, teamwork, and communication skills
- Gain customer service, animal care, and youth program experience
- Learn about the Guelph Humane Society and day-to-day activities
- Build confidence running games and activities for children
- Have fun! We go on a field trip every week!

Camp Week Schedule: Monday-Friday 8:30am - 4:30pm
