

2021 Youth Leader Volunteer Application: Summer Critter Camp

The Guelph Humane Society needs Youth Leader volunteers for our Summer Critter Camp! Camp runs Monday to Friday each week in July and August from 9:00am-4:00pm. Our programming allows campers in Grades 1-8 to learn about the Humane Society, proper animal care, and experience hands-on animal interactions. Youth Leaders will help camp staff run games, crafts, and activities during the program. This is an exciting opportunity to enhance your resume, build leadership, communication, and teamwork skills, and get hands-on animal and youth program experience! Hours can also be put towards community service. All programs will be located at the Guelph Humane Society (190 Hanlon Creek Blvd) and Youth Leaders are required to arrange their own transportation.

Requirements

- Entering grade 9 or above
- Experience working with children and/or animals preferred
- Comfortable handling various animals
- Positive, enthusiastic, hard-working, and responsible attitude
- Excellent teamwork skills
- Must be able to commit to one full week at minimum.

Why volunteer?

- Build valuable leadership, teamwork, and communication skills
- Gain customer service, animal care, and youth program experience
- Learn about the Guelph Humane Society and day-to-day activities
- Build confidence running games and activities for children
- Have fun!!
